THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE L.NARASIMHA REDDY

–

DATED: 25-11-2005

–

WRIT PETITION No.24722 OF 2005

Between:

T.Prabhakar . . .Petitioner

And

The Convenor, Para-Medical Examinations, Hyd,

and another . .Respondents

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE L.NARASIMHA REDDY

–

–

WRIT PETITION No.24722 OF 2005

O R D E R:

The petitioner was admitted to one year Blood Bank Technician Certificate Course in Dr. B.R.Ambedkar Para-Medical College, Hyderabad Road, Nalgonda. Only one examination is held at the end of the course for 100 marks. 20 marks are earmarked for internal assessment and 80 marks for the external examination. The petitioner states that he performed well in internal as well as external examinations and alleges that while he secured 100% in the internal test, only 12 marks were awarded to him in the external examination. He claims to have made a representation on 18-10-2005 to the first respondent for undertaking revaluation of the answer script and alleges that no action has been taken thereon.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Government Pleader for Medical and Health.

The petitioner is not able to cite any provision, which enables the first respondent to order revaluation of the answer script. Unless there exists such a provision, neither the first respondent can undertake revaluation nor this Court can issue directions for that purpose. Inasmuch as the petitioner has undergone the course, the only alternative for him is to re-appear in the external examination. He shall have the benefit of the internal assessment.

Therefore, the writ petition is disposed of, leaving it open to the petitioner to appear in the external examination of Blood Bank Technician Course as and when it is held and in case he secures minimum of 20 marks, he shall be entitled to be declared as pass on the basis of the internal marks secured by him already. There shall be no order as to costs.

_____

(L.NARASIMHA REDDY, J)

25th NOVEMBER, 2005.

kvni